Extract from Government Pro: no: 4706-10 / L. J. 43-98 dated the 4th June 1904

Para 8. It is to be clearly understood that the policy of Govt is not to make loans and advances to municipalities when the prospects of repayment are remote or nonexistent. In future no loan will be granted unless some definite source of revenue can be assigned for re-payment, taxation being increased, if necessary, for the purpose or possible economies demonstrated and effected. When any extensive improvements are necessitated by plague or other extra ordinary visitation or calamity, the cost thereof will be borne by Govt, provided that suitable precautions are taken for the proper expenditure of grants made. With this object in view, and having regard to the fact that for the improvement of the Mysore City, an yearly allotment of funds has been made, and a Board of Trust

Created, the Govt of H. H. the Maharaja are pleased to sanction an annual grant not exceeding a lac of rupees for the next five years to be utilized and spent for permanent improvements of the Bangalore city, not falling within the legitimate scope of the obligations of the municipality
